Reader's Opinions

I was intrigued by the plot idea of "Fortuna," so I decided to give it a try. At first, I had a hard time getting in to it, mostly because I was trying to take in the various details of the game (Fortuna) and its world (Renaissance Florence), but once those settled in, I found myself moving with relative ease through the book, enjoying...

Seemed like a strange story line so book caught my attention. Well thought out game plan! One of the most intriguing books read this year. Know some folks will find lack of definitive chapters challenging just go with writer and enjoy your adventure.
