

PRANCING NIGGER

Prancing Nigger (1925) is probably Firbank's most widely known book, and was particularly successful in America. Many people consider it the best of the novels, and even if one prefers Valmouth or Vainglory, one is bound to admit that...

Reader's Opinions

Sorrow in Sunlight [alternatively entitled 'Prancing Nigger'] (1925)Author: Ronald Firbank* A Project Gutenberg of Australia eBook * <http://gutenberg.net.au/ebooks07/0700...>The title is your first clue. This book is totally politically incorrect. Set in some unnamed very warm Colonial country, every one, European and native is described...

If you can stomach it morally, the vernacular is enjoyable, and sometimes exhilarating ("Oh ki; it put me in de gigglements..."), and the narration (as with FLOWER) is much less obscure than most of Firbank.[Read in THE COMPLETE RONALD FIRBANK, Duckworth 1961]
