

CUFFED

With a clairvoyant-like ability to hunt down criminals, Razors is a police asset. To his supervisors he's a liability; a brutal street cop who makes his own rules. But Razors' skills are about to be severely tested; he's investigating mankind. See, he's formed a mind-blowing theory about existence, and if he proves it's true, it threatens everyone. Busting gangs was easy. Now he's up against 7 billion of us, all fighting for survival...

Reader's Opinions

No same-old stuff herel no longer bother to finish books that aren't grabbing me, and I'd stopped reading three books just before starting this one. Same old plotlines. Boring. Yawn. This book is a breath of fresh air. Razors is a brilliant character, truly larger than life. He takes the reader on an exciting adventure into the dark...

The author, Marc Horn, gave me a copy of this novel in exchange for my review. Marc Horn scares me. His talent for writing beautifully brilliant characters that are truly disturbed is terrifying. Razors may be the best example of his work yet. Razors is a character in a responsible position with irresponsible motivations. His superiors...
