

SPEECHLESS: A YEAR IN MY FATHER'S BUSINESS

James Button spent a year writing speeches for Kevin Rudd. Before that, he reported on politics as a highly regarded journalist for Fairfax. But James also has politics in the blood: his father was the diminutive but larger-than-life Senator John Button, who was a minister in the Hawke and Keating governments. Growing up, James watched a roll-call of political luminaries debating the fate of the Labor Party. He saw great victories and defeats at close hand. He believes...

Reader's Opinions

Easy to read though became uninteresting and circular.

Self indulgent nonsense. One star is generous.
