Reader's Opinions

This is definitely a book for Christians or those who are ready to commit themselves to Christ. It is a comfort for those who have had to say goodbye to a much loved pet. It was a bit repetitive. I also object to some of the author's referencing different people's dreams as fact. An out of body experience is one thing. But what a person...

My husband gave me this book after losing a cat; it was a particularly difficult loss--no closure until spring when we found him where he had been hit and trapped under the ice & snow. This book helped. It is...
