

GHOST OF A LIE

Mid-March 1947: Six long weeks of blizzards and hardship close with a lethal manhunt. Eleanor Elliot, single-handedly battling to keep her tiny Cotswold Farmstead fed and intact, is about to experience a winter unlike any other. Icy and remorseless, the storm makes one last stand before giving way to the belated spring, and its gusts carry more than the report of a murder. They bring suspicion, the police and the panicked flight of a desperate man. More dangerous still, an impulsive rescue forces a confrontation...
