Reader's Opinions

Quick read of a youngster learning how to be a partner with an older horse, set in his ways and stubborn. This book has a note inside with my name in it, and showing it was bought in 1987, up at White Settlement, TX by my folks. Funny! And WOW! can I ignore at how time flies?!!!

Animals are complicated, difficult, and ornery. They have their own view of the world and their own wants and desires. This is the part that makes them loveable, but it doesn't make them easy. Or, the first time I read a book that said reality, with all its disappointments and complications, is better than fantasy. Also, things don't...
