Peek Inside the Book

That's when it hit him with the force of a fastball in the chest: He was falling in love with Shane MacKinnon. He hardly knew her, and yet he knew with absolutely certainty that she was everything he'd ever wanted. He wanted to hold her like...

Reader's Opinions

I loved this book. There is a good balance between romance and suspense. Just when you think the exciting part is over and that the remaining several pages will be romance, the story adds a twist that will keep you reading until...

Shattered Blue by Jane Taylor Starwood is a 2013 independent/self-published release. I was provided a copy of this book by the author in exchange for an honest review. Shannon is living out away from most of civilization with only one close friend in town, no family, husband or kids. Why? Well, her step father recently died in prison...
