Reader's Opinions

I loved this book!Just when I think her stories cannot get any better, Erin Nicholas amazes me again.This love story has a hero and heroine that, despite their baggage, are adorable. I believe the characters acted and reacted much like I would in the same circumstances; making me feel like I was part of the story, rather than an observer.I...

Another steamy read from Erin Nicholas. Just like her single titles and her awesome Bradford series, she hits this mark on this book.To be blunt, Brooke is basically marked as the town slut even though there was no indication that she ever was one (although her mother was another story). She has come back to the hometown that she hates...
