

KOREA: AS SEEN BY MAGNUM PHOTOGRAPHERS

South Korea, with its craggy hillsides, gnarled trees, and ancient temples, is steeped in tradition yet, at the same time, is thoroughly modern—the tenth-ranking industrial power in the world. Its capital city, Seoul, is one of the most populous cities in the world and home to such cutting-edge buildings...

Reader's Opinions

The photographs in this book are outstanding, 5 stars to that. But the set-up of this book is weird. Why are all the captions in the back of the book??? I had to read the whole book with my hand in the back, constantly flipping to read about what I was looking at. So that was strange to say the least, but the pictures were great and...
