Reader's Opinions

Deven, a professor of Hindi in Mirpore college, lives morose life full of certainty and stagnancy. His is the 'life of non happenings'. When his childhood friend Murad provides him with an opportunity to interview his hero, the grand Urdu poet Nur, he sets out on an adventure to only realize the frugality and futility of his friendship...

there's no question the woman can write, but i can't say i'm really enjoying this, and after being battered by her daughter's booker winner, i think i may need to give this up.
