

ABSENT CHILDREN

Two births, two tragedies. A family battered but resilient and searching for the answers they need to bring them solace and help them heal. When the birth of their first baby goes devastatingly wrong, Jessamy and Luke's grief is complicated by the guilt they each feel, and their marriage deteriorates. A meeting with an inspirational person and some important news help them on their journey, until a new...

Reader's Opinions

Jessamy and Luke are meant to be together, but life has dealt them a harsh blow and they have different ways of coping with it. The author skilfully shows us both sides of a marriage where the couple is trying to cling on to hope. A meeting with an inspirational person and some important news help them on their journey. And of course...
