

JACK

Memories are fading as the pirates forget the life they once knew. Only one has managed to remember his life before Pan whisked him away to Neverland--and he's determined to find a way to escape in spite of Hook's need for revenge. Seeking a way to restore the memories of the Jolig Roger's crew, Jack crosses...

Reader's Opinions

Book 4 of the Untold Stories of Neverland series brings the reader to the satisfying conclusion of the series. Jack's story seems to be a quicker read, the story flows effortlessly from start...

This story was great because we get to learn about the little boy that Pan stole against his will and see what happens the moment he grew up. The story comes full circle and ends with the neverling that grew up. We learn why he did, and what happens when you stay in Neverland too long. Seeing that the memories were fading, he struggles...
