Peek Inside the Book

As long as it is admitted that the law may be diverted from its true purpose--that it may violate property instead of protecting it--then everyone will want to participate in making the law, either to protect himself against plunder or to use...

Reader's Opinions

Fiery, passionate writing that actually makes sense? How can it not be five-stars? And how dare we expect less from the great Mr. Bastiat? His message really is simple: that the law is made to protect individual liberty so by God, why should it be used for any other purpose? "It is not because men have made laws, that personality, liberty,...
