

RUSSEL WONG PHOTOGRAPHS 1980-2005

Russel's career began when one of his photographs made it to the cover of Track & Field News magazine in the early eighties. He was then 19, majoring in business at the University of Oregon. In 1984 he enrolled at the renowned Art Center College of Design, where he honed his photography skills under the mentorship of industry legends. In his second year, he took a four-month immersion trip to Milan, Italy where he met and befriended influential fashion photographers who recognised his talent and connected him...
