

ALL-AMERICAN GIRL

At the age of thirty, with two failed marriages and a tanking writing career, Samantha Moore deals with the world with the only tool she had left: anger. And she's tired of it. When her grandmother's near-death sends her rushing back home to Vermont, she hopes for the chance to overcome the rage ruling her life. Once she's home, Lance Cummings becomes a constant source of indigestion. Lance is a single father who learned first-hand the devastating effects of a damaging relationship. He...

Peek Inside the Book

Whats bothering me is you always seem ready to snap my head off my shoulders and Im not comfortable with that. Justine Dell, All-American Girl //

She loved this man. This wonderful, respectful, willful man. And she couldnt even tell him. Justine Dell, All-American Girl //

Reader's Opinions

Internal Conflict. Love. Guilt. Love. Sadness. Love. Pain. Love. Fear. Love. This was a story of Samantha and her belief in herself and her ability to allow herself to feel love once again - for others and for herself. I wanted her to have her happily ever after with Lance from the very beginning. But really, there was so much that she...
